

Policy Statement on External Links

St Anne's Website includes links to related websites which are not maintained by the school. These links are provided so that users have additional relevant information, which they may wish to explore.

St Anne's is not responsible for the content of external websites. The inclusion of a link to a third party website, from the Schools website, should not be understood as an endorsement.