OVERALL EFFECTIVENESS

St Anne's School is outstanding in providing Catholic Education.

CATHOLIC LIFE

The extent to which the pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic life of the school

- All pupils appreciate, value and actively participate in the Catholic Life and mission of the school.
- They contribute to the school's evaluation of its Catholic Life and mission. Children were totally involved in the review of the Mission Statement on 3rd September this year. They certainly know the Mission Statement and are proud of it. It came up in Collective Worship and in a number of lessons.
- All pupils show a deep respect for themselves and others as made in the image and likeness of God. The behaviour of all pupils is exemplary at all times. In proportion to their years they show an ability to listen, to give thanks, to forgive and be forgiven. They are quick to congratulate others. The philosophy underlying 'Following in the Footsteps of Jesus' is at the heart of all that is done.
- All pupils enthusiastically embrace the demands that membership of the school community entails. As a result, they take a leading role in those activities which promote the school's Catholic Life and mission both within school and in the wider community. They are alert to the needs of others and seek justice for all within and beyond the school community. They are keen fundraisers for charities and in September of this year they started to use WE schools resources alongside CAFOD resources to help identify areas locally and globally where they can help make a change. At the moment they support The Good Shepherd, Children in Need, CAFOD, Nugent, the White Chapel Centre, school food bank which is an appreciated resource for families within the community and others.
- All pupils highly value the school's chaplaincy provision. The Parish Priest is very involved in the life of the school and contributes greatly to its' spiritual life. Pupils take leadership roles in school. They are members of the School Council and the Eco Council. They are prefects, buddies and play leaders. Year 4 take on the role of 'Reading Revolutionaries'. They take leadership roles in Collective Worship. They actively participate in opportunities provided by the school to sing in local hospitals, hospice, care homes and Liverpool 1. They also take full advantage of the residentials where the opportunities for Collective Worship are particularly appreciated especially when they take time to appreciate God's wonderful creation.
- All pupils take full advantage of the opportunities the school provides for their personal support and development. Here the contribution of the Pastoral Care Leads is greatly appreciated and is a true strength of the school. The extra-curricular activities are well attended and extensive. As a result, pupils are happy, confident and secure in their own stage of physical, emotional and spiritual growth.
- Pupils, appropriate to their age and capability, have an excellent understanding of loving relationships and sexual development within the context of a Christian. Journey in Love has been introduced and is being developed.
- All pupils enthusiastically embrace a holistic approach to education; have a profound understanding of what it means to have a vocation and they joyfully offer their gifts in the service of others.

- All pupils deeply value and respect the Catholic tradition of the school and its strong links with the parish communities and the diocese. As a result, they are enthusiastically and regularly involved with parish and diocesan celebrations and activities, irrespective of their own faith commitments. All pupils are confident in expressing pride in their own religious and cultural identity and beliefs.

The quality of provision for the Catholic Life of the school

- The school Mission Statement is a clear and inspiring expression of the educational mission of the Church. It is summed up in the motto 'Following in the footsteps of Jesus'. There are three Aims which now need practical Objectives showing how the Aims are to be achieved.
- All staff are fully committed to implementing the Mission Statement across the curriculum and the whole of school life. They enthusiastically participate in school activities which reflect the Catholic Life and mission of the school, such as, retreats, staff prayer, CPD on Catholic Life. Here the input of Fr Peter is highly valued.
- There is a very strong sense of community at all levels, evident in the high quality of relationships and the centrality of prayer for the whole community. Prayer is at the heart of all that is done. The school is a supportive and joyful community.
- The school environment reflects its mission and identity through concrete and effective signs of the school's Catholic character. Displays and attractive artefacts are examples of this. The new Prayer Garden is of high quality.
- All staff promote high standards of behaviour and are exemplary role models of mutual respect and forgiveness for pupils.
- The entire curriculum reflects a commitment to Catholic Social Teaching, to care for our common home and to the dignity of every human person. There is an active Eco Council in school.
- The school provides extensive opportunities for the spiritual and moral development of all pupils and staff.
- The chaplaincy provision is outstanding in supporting and promoting the Catholic Life of the school.
- Clear policies and structures are in place, which provide the highest levels of pastoral care to all pupils, and there is an explicit and concrete commitment to the most vulnerable and needy in both policy and practice.
- The school is equally attentive to the pastoral needs of members of staff and ensures that every member's needs are understood and catered for. The contribution of the Pastoral Care Leads has obviously born fruit. They are trusted, approachable, respected professionals; dedicated to the children, families and staff and they give of themselves unreservedly.
- Pastoral programmes, Personal, Social, Health Education, and Relationships and Sex Education, are thoughtfully designed, carefully planned, consistently well taught and celebrate Catholic teachings and principles.

How well leaders and governors promote, monitor and evaluate the provision for the Catholic Life of the school

- The school's leadership is deeply committed to the Church's mission in education. Leaders are energised by the task and are a source of inspiration for the whole community. The development of the Catholic Life of the school is viewed by leaders and governors as a core leadership responsibility.

- The provision for the Catholic Life of the school is given the highest possible priority by leaders. This is reflected in the school's self-evaluation which is a coherent reflection of monitoring, analysis and self-challenge and is clearly and explicitly focused on the Catholic Life of the school.
- This leads to well-targeted and planned improvements, often creatively conceived with key partners, to further enhance the Catholic Life of the school.
- CPD focusing on the Catholic Life of the school occurs frequently and is engaging, well planned and effective. All in-service offered by The Christian Education Department is availed of. As a result, staff understanding of the school's mission is outstanding. They share its purpose and are keenly and actively involved in shaping and supporting it, as evident in the staff inspection questionnaires.
- The school has highly successful strategies for engaging with parents/carers to the obvious benefit of pupils, including those who might traditionally find working with the school difficult. As a result, parents/carers have a thorough understanding of the school's mission and are highly supportive of it. As one parent quoted, "St. Anne's is a successful Catholic school because religion is embedded in everything they do. All the children and staff follow in the 'footsteps of Jesus'. And if you watch the children and staff, you can tell that through the love, care, kindness shown by children staff and families."
- As leaders, the governing body is highly ambitious for the Catholic Life of the school and leads by example in the way it consistently emphasises Catholic Life as a school improvement priority. Governors make a highly significant contribution to the Catholic Life of the school. They are passionate about the school's mission, are actively involved in its evaluation and are ready to challenge as well as support where necessary. They give freely of their time and expertise.
- The school is enthusiastic in its response to Archdiocesan policies and initiatives and actively promotes the Archbishop's vision for the Archdiocese throughout the school. Relationships and Sex Education has recently been introduced in response to the wishes of the bishops Conference.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

How well pupils achieve and enjoy their learning in Religious Education

- All pupils, from their varied starting points, make good progress in each key stage.
- All groups of pupils, including those with special educational needs, are also making progress comparable to the progress of other pupils.
- All pupils, relative to their age and capacity, are religiously literate and engaged young people; they use their knowledge, understanding and skills effectively, to reflect spiritually, and to think ethically and theologically. As a consequence, they are fully aware of the demands of religious commitment in everyday life.
- All pupils are actively engaged in lessons and are committed to improving their knowledge, understanding and skills, in order to further develop as competent learners.
- All pupils concentrate exceptionally well and have a clear understanding of how well they are doing.

- All pupils approach lessons with great interest, passion and enthusiasm. Pupils enjoy tackling challenging activities and respond exceptionally well to opportunities which extend their learning. Behaviour in lessons is outstanding because all pupils obviously enjoy Religious Education and they are never off task even in extended periods without direction from an adult.
- Pupils' attainment, as indicated by teacher assessment is good. There is an obvious progression as pupils make their way up the school. The quality of pupils' current work, both in class and in written work, is good overall.

The quality of teaching, learning and assessment in Religious Education

- Teachers are highly effective in consistently planning high-quality lessons linked to pupils' current assessment and their knowledge of the individual, consolidating and extending pupils' knowledge and understanding, so that they learn extremely well. As a result of this, the majority of teaching is outstanding, and teaching is never less than consistently good.
- Teachers have a high level of confidence because of their subject expertise and their understanding of the breadth of teaching methods, enhanced by the high proportion of staff with, or working towards, Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies. As a consequence, all pupils are inspired to learn and make good and sustained progress.
- Teachers employ a wide range of appropriate teaching strategies, including individual and collaborative work. Consequently, all pupils are highly motivated and sustain high levels of concentration.
- Some teachers encourage the children to evaluate their learning using the PEU strategy from the Assessment Policy. This contributes to their progress and provides them with a high level of confidence in making improvements. This could profitably become standard practice throughout school.
- Teachers consistently use time effectively to maximise learning opportunities in lessons and across sequences of lessons.
- Teachers carefully observe and skilfully question during lessons in order to adapt tasks and explanations, thus maximising learning for every pupil.
- High quality resources, including other adults, Information and Communication Technology and music are used very effectively to optimise learning for each pupil.
- Teachers communicate high expectations and passion about Religious Education to their pupils who respond with enthusiasm.
- Celebration of achievement and effort, including the living out of the Mission Statement, are central to the teacher's assessment strategy, securing high levels of motivation from pupils.

How well leaders and governors promote, monitor and evaluate the provision for Religious Education

- Leaders and governors ensure that the Religious Education curriculum meets the requirements of the Bishops' Conference in every respect and in each key stage.
- Leaders and governors ensure that at least the required amount of curriculum time is given to Religious Education in each key stage.
- Leaders and governors ensure that Religious Education has full parity with other core curriculum subjects including professional development, resourcing, staffing and accommodation.
- Any additional requirements and policies of the Archdiocese regarding the Religious Education curriculum are embraced and fully implemented.

- Leaders' and governors' self-evaluation of Religious Education is a coherent reflection of assessment, tracking, monitoring, searching analysis and self-challenge which is well-informed by current best practice in Religious Education. This results in well targeted planning and strategic action taken by the school which leads to very good outcomes in Religious Education.
- The curriculum leader for Religious Education has an inspiring vision of outstanding teaching and learning and a high level of expertise in securing this vision. These are used effectively to improve teaching and learning in Religious Education, resulting in teaching that is likely to be outstanding and at least consistently good. She is passionate about the subject.
- Leaders and governors ensure that Religious Education is imaginatively and thoughtfully planned to meet the needs of different groups of pupils and each key stage and phase is creatively structured to build on and enhance prior learning.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

How well pupils respond to and participate in the school's Collective Worship

- Acts of Collective Worship engage all pupils' interest and inspire in them deep thought and heartfelt response. There is a genuine enthusiasm for Collective Worship, reflected in the quality of prayerful silence and the depth of reverent participation in communal prayer.
- Pupils readily take the initiative in leading worship displaying confidence and enthusiasm. They are creative and resourceful in their planning of liturgy and want it to be the best it can be. Most other pupils are visibly uplifted by the worship opportunities created by their peers.
- All pupils have an excellent understanding of the Church's liturgical year, seasons and feasts. This is enhanced by the celebration of the liturgical year both in church and school. Appropriate to their age and ability, they are able to prepare acts of Collective Worship, which fully reflects this understanding.
- Pupils display confidence in their use of a wide variety of traditional and contemporary approaches to prayer, which uses scripture, religious artefacts and liturgical music.
- The experience of living and working in a faithful, praying community has a profound and visible effect on the spiritual and moral development of all pupils, irrespective of ability or faith background. They have a deep sense of respect for those of other faiths and this is reflected in the manner in which pupils prepare and participate in prayer and liturgy.

The quality of Collective Worship provided by the school

- Collective Worship is obviously central to the life of the school for all pupils, whatever their own faith background, and forms the heart of every school celebration. Praying together is part of the daily experience for all pupils and staff.
- Collective Worship has a clear purpose, message and direction. The themes chosen for worship are reflected in the celebration, for example, Universal Children's Day.
- Collective Worship is given the highest possible priority in terms of planning, evaluating and resourcing; as a result, experiences of Collective Worship are of such a high quality that they are universally cherished by every member of the community.
- Relevant staff have an excellent understanding of the Church's liturgical year, seasons and feasts, and are passionate about ensuring that pupils have high quality experiences of the Church's liturgical life.

- The Collective Worship file shows that staff are highly skilled in helping pupils to plan and deliver quality worship when appropriate. They have a thorough and comprehensive understanding of the purpose of Collective Worship and the wide variety of methods and styles of prayer.
- Opportunities are planned in a manner that attracts and facilitates attendance by other adults associated with the pupils and school and response to this invitation is very good.

How well leaders, governors promote, monitor and evaluate the provision for Collective Worship

- Leaders have expert knowledge of how to provide policies and guidelines to ensure quality planning and delivery of Collective Worship.
- They have an extensive understanding of the Church's liturgical year, seasons and feasts.
- They are always able to make these accessible to pupils in a contemporary context.
- Leaders are very visible as leaders of Collective Worship within the school. They are models of outstanding practice for staff and pupils.
- They extensively promote pupils' planning and leading Collective Worship in a variety of contexts as evidenced in the Collective Worship file.
- Leaders place the highest priority on the professional development of staff incorporating liturgical formation and the planning of Collective Worship. Use has been made of the Christian Education Department to enhance this work.
- Leaders and governors place the highest priority on the school's self evaluation of Collective Worship with regular reviews of school performance.

What the school needs to do to improve further

- Implement the areas for development identified in the Self Evaluation Document especially;
 - the embedding the Relationship and Sex Education Programme.
- Ensure the approach to Driver Words evident in marking is consistently used to challenge learners at all opportunities, including during lessons.
- Develop Objectives to reflect the Aims of the Mission Statement.
